

2 THINGS YOU CAN DO IN CASE OF:
WHEN DRAMA STARTS ON DISCORD.
(OR IN GENERAL, MOST MODERN CHAT SERVICES, BUT ITS MOSTLY DC.)

STEP 1: PUT SOME DUCT-TAPE ONTO THAT CHAT.

To simply put it, mute the chat, 1+ hour is recommended, But if drama is frequent, then we suggest to mute the chat permanently/for good.

You are able to mute group-chats by right-clicking on the specific chat and through the Mute conversation menu, you are able to mute the group chat. Names of GC's will turn grey upon muting.

STEP 2:

JEEZ, WILL YOU STOP PINGING ALREADY?

If you are like “I don’t want to mute my chat!” well then this ones for you types of people. Just simply change your status to “Do not disturb” (or in web slang, DND.)

You are able to change to DND by clicking on your profile picture, and selecting “Do not disturb”.

Note: This was mostly made as a joke, but still, feel free to actually “use” this advice. Also feel free to share this if you want to.
